

Boston Business Journal

Boston Business Journal
January 11, 2008

HighRoads acquires HR advisory firm

HighRoads Inc. announced that it has acquired human resources advisory firm MHS Advisors LLC.

Financial terms were not disclosed.

The Woburn, Mass., HR management software company said the MHS Advisors team will become HighRoads' HR Advisory Services division and will set up a new office in Chicago, expanding the company's Midwest presence.

MHS specializes in serving large employers' needs in global human resources strategies. HighRoads said the deal will add a global advisory component to its HR management technology products.

The company provides software and services to more than 100 Fortune 500 employers along with 700 affiliated vendors, consultants and outsourced administrators.